Dear Representative Doe:

I appreciated the opportunity to meet with (the staff member/Member) on DATE.

During the meeting, we discussed several key issues important to the rheumatology community. These issues included:

- Continued funding for arthritis research
- Reinstatement of consultation codes to ensure patient access to specialty care
- Permanent repeal of the SGR
- Continued access to preventative osteoporosis testing

We are very appreciative of your efforts on behalf of rheumatology patients and the medical community. If you have any specific questions about the issues discussed in our meeting or others that impact rheumatology professionals and patients, I am available as a resource. You may reach me at PHONE ###

Sincerely,
