RE: Your request for mailing labels 6 pages

Thank you for your interest in The American College of Rheumatology (ACR)/Association of Rheumatology Health Professionals (ARHP) and your request for rental of our membership mailing list. The ACR/ARHP makes its membership list(s) available to professional organizations, agencies, continual education offices (CME), recruiters, hospitals and other institutions for ONE-TIME USE ONLY. The lists are to provide the membership of the ACR/ARHP information that we deem informative and beneficial to all members. The ACR/ARHP has certain criteria that must be met in order to rent the list(s). In order for the program sponsor to be eligible to use the list(s) for workshops, seminars, CME events, etc., the appropriate ACR/ARHP staff member must approve the proposed use of our list(s) and the proposed mailing piece. The membership list(s) may be used for only the approved piece and proposed purpose.

The ACR/ARHP’s membership list(s) are confidential and we CAN NOT RENT E-MAIL ADDRESSES. Therefore, The ACR/ARHP electronic list(s) WILL ONLY BE SENT DIRECTLY TO LEGALLY BONDED MAIL HOUSES OR PRINTERS. It is a standard policy among non-profit and professional associations not to release files directly to anyone other than a legally bonded mail house or printer.

Instructions

To initiate an order please send:

1. A brief cover letter stating what you are requesting. Your orders can be submitted by mail, fax or e-mail.
2. A final version of the proposed mailer and the envelope (when appropriate). You may e-mail a PDF to membership@rheumatology.org or mail/fax a hard copy.
3. A completed Licensee and Confidentiality Agreement (see pages 4-6).

Filling out the Licensee and Confidentiality Agreement

The type of media you would like your labels printed on: (see page 5 and select one)

- Pressure sensitive labels (peel-off, self-sticking labels for use in your office)
- Electronic (sent by e-mail to a legally bonded mail house or printer only)

Step 1 – Choose the division.

The ACR is made up of two divisions:

- The American College of Rheumatology, whose members are primarily physicians involved in the treatment of research into rheumatic diseases.
- The Association of Rheumatology Health Professionals whose members are any allied health professional (nurses, occupational or physical therapists, social workers, etc.) involved in the treatment or research into rheumatic diseases.

Step 2 – Choose the membership groups within the division.
ACR

- Fellow of the ACR – board certified or board-eligible rheumatologist, pediatric rheumatologist who live in the US, Canada and Mexico
- Members - board certified in a related, non-rheumatological field, (i.e.; immunologists, orthopedic surgeons, etc.) & scientists dedicated to research of rheumatic disease, primarily PhDs
- Fellows-in-Training – physicians currently in rheumatology fellowship training programs.
- International Fellow - physicians (outside US, Canada and Mexico) who have board certification in their own countries equivalent to U.S. board certification in rheumatology or pediatric rheumatology.
- International Members- clinical and Research members living outside the U.S.
- International Fellows-in-Training – physicians in rheumatology fellowship training programs and who reside outside the U.S., Canada, and Mexico
- Residents & Medical Students – physicians and medical students who have an interest in pursuing rheumatology as a specialty
- Master Members- Members who are of high professional competence, ethics, and moral standing who have significantly furthered the art and science of rheumatology.
- Emeritus Members- Members who have retired from active practice.

ARHP

- Health Professional Members- degreed professionals in fields including, but not limited to, physical therapy, social work, psychology, occupational therapy, pharmacy and nursing.
- Practice Management Members- degreed professional whose primary role in rheumatology is as a Practice Manager, Administrator, Insurance Specialist, Coder, Biller, or Receptionist/Scheduler
- International Rheumatology Health Professional Members- Degreed professionals (residing outside of the United States, Canada, or Mexico) in fields including, but not limited to, physical therapy, social work, psychology, occupational therapy, pharmacy and nursing.
- Emeritus Members- A member who has retired from active practice.
- Associate Rheumatology Health Professional Member- Technicians, assistants and office staff, and non-degreed clinical research coordinators.
- Student Members- Members in health professional programs that including nursing, physical therapy, occupational therapy, social work, psychology, laboratory sciences, physician assistant, health education and epidemiology.

Step 3 – Choose the location of the intended audience.

- The ACR provides the option of ordering only portions of the total membership. For example, the ACR can provide only U.S. members or international members. The ACR also can provide specific cities, states or countries. The ACR can also limit the number of labels to any specific number. For instance, if you only need 3,000 labels, we can print exactly 3,000. We do not have a list minimum.

Step 4 – Choose how you would like the list sorted.

- Labels will be sorted either by country/zip code or alphabetical. If the sort order is not specified, labels will be printed in zip-code order and will include all members in all regions and countries.

Step 5 – Enter payment information

- Labels are $.25 per address.
- There is a $100.00 surcharge for rush orders.
- If you selected pressure-sensitive labels, they will be shipped via FedEx or UPS at a cost of $25.00. To reduce shipping time, the labels can be shipped overnight; however, you will be invoiced for the service. If you would like to use your FedEx or UPS account, please provide the account number and you will not be invoiced for shipping costs.
- You can provide a credit card number or you can be invoiced after the label request has been processed. Your invoice will be e-mailed and is payable upon receipt.

Approval process

The text of all mailers is subject to approval by either an ACR department head, or by an ACR committee. You will be notified if the text of the mailer has not been approved. If you are ordering more than one set of labels, you must submit a sample mailer for each set. Please specify if you are using the same mailer for multiple sets of labels. The ACR/ARHP reserves the right to deny use of our membership list(s) at any time.

Label requests are considered active on the date all of the above information has been received, not by the date of the initial inquiry. Processing of the labels takes approximately seven (7) working days from the date of receipt. Rush orders will be shipped within two-four (2-4) working days.

Counts

Our estimated membership counts per division can be found on the ACR website. Please note:

- The counts on the website are ESTIMATES and are not to be used to calculate final payment.
- The total membership of the ACR is approximately 9,400. ACR members may opt out of receiving mailed solicitations. The totals indicate the members who agree to participate in the label rental program.

If you have any questions concerning these mailing label request procedures, please contact Membership at membership@rheumatology.org or 404-633–3777 ext. 107.
