The American College of Rheumatology invites you to engage with rheumatology health professionals throughout 2020 at a variety of live events:

Benefits to exhibiting:

- Building brand awareness
- Maintaining business relationships
- Introducing a new product/service
- Generating new leads
- Discounted scientific meeting registration
- Accruing one priority point toward exhibiting at the 2021 ACR/ARP Annual Meeting by exhibiting at three Educational Meetings (WRS, SOTA, PRSYM)

ACR Beyond is a streaming service from the American College of Rheumatology that provides access to innovative educational content on your favorite devices when you want it. ACR Beyond is available globally for instant streaming of trusted, top-rated educational presentations by leading experts from around the world. Access an extensive content library featuring scientific sessions, abstracts, lectures, and more. New content is added monthly.

The State-of-the-Art Clinical Symposium and Rheumatology Research Workshop also offer sponsorship opportunities to demonstrate your organization's commitment to the next generation of rheumatologists through your support of the rheumatology fellows in training. This support allows for crucial fellow-in-training participation at these educational meetings, which enriches their training and keeps them up to date with best practices in the field.

If your company would like to exhibit at both sessions, the total cost is $2,000 for the full week.

Industry-supported symposia opportunities are available at the following times:

- Sunday, January 26, 7:00–10:00 PM (1 opportunity): $7,500
- Monday, January 27, 7:00–10:00 PM (1 opportunity): $7,500
Exhibit

The fee to exhibit is $1,500 per tabletop display at each exhibit session and $2,000 for both sessions and includes:

- 6’ draped table
- Two chairs
- One wastebasket
- Up to five exhibitor badges

Application Process

Tabletop display selection is at the sole discretion of the ACR. There are a limited number of opportunities and space will be offered based on:

1. Corporate donor status, including Foundation Corporate Roundtable membership
2. Date that completed application is received

Exhibitor Upgrade Package: $500

Upgrade your exhibitor package and receive the following additional benefits:

- Inclusion in Passport Program
- Company logo in exhibitor listing included in the attendee registration packet
- Company logo on exhibitor signage at the meeting
- One complimentary scientific registration

Educate

Industry-Supported Symposia may be either CME-accredited or non-CME, company directed programs. Programs will be approved by the ACR Corporate Relations Committee. If multiple applications for each time are received, space will be offered based on:

1. Corporate donor status, including Foundation Corporate Roundtable membership
2. Date that completed application is received

Eligibility

The ACR is committed to ensuring industry-supported symposia offer a valuable educational experience for attendees. Therefore, all participants must meet the following qualifications:

- All information must be of professional and educational interest or benefit to the attendees and related to the field of rheumatology.
- Participants must agree to comply with all ACR rules and regulations.
- Expectations for content: All symposia are expected to present fair and balanced information relating to the pathogenesis, diagnosis, and treatment of rheumatic diseases. Unless the symposium is related to a novel product that represents a new class for which there is no comparison, all symposia should include a comparison with other similar or like class agents. Presentation of data that has not been publicly released (published or presented in a peer-reviewed format, except for a serious adverse event or significant complication that may be released in a press release) is prohibited. Exceptions to this policy will only be considered if the new, non-peer-reviewed data were to have a substantial public health benefit and is non-promotional.

The acceptance of a company for participation does not constitute an endorsement by the ACR, the ARP, or the Rheumatology Research Foundation.

Proposal Process

The ACR will review all complete proposals and reserves the right to reject topics, formats, or materials deemed inappropriate. The ACR reserves the right to request a review of the slide presentations at any time.
Maximize your company's exposure and demonstrate your commitment to the field of rheumatology with the following support opportunities offered at the Winter Rheumatology Symposium. If you are interested in any of these opportunities, please contact ncabrera@rheumatology.org.

NEW! Passport Program SOLD OUT

Multiple Opportunities: $250

Include your company in the exhibitor passport, which is designed to encourage attendee interaction. The first 20 attendees who visit all of the companies in the passport will receive a prize, and all attendees who complete the passport will be entered into the Grand Prize drawing. All prizes will be provided by the ACR.

Key Cards SOLD

Exclusive Opportunity: $7,500

Distributed upon check-in at the hotel front desk to approximately 150 attendees, supporter will receive corporate logo and booth number on key cards at the meeting hotel.

Meeting Room Wi-Fi

Exclusive Opportunity: $7,500

Used by attendees throughout the course of the meeting to view important online information. This is an excellent way to maximize exposure for your company. Benefits include internet access cards with corporate recognition, Wi-Fi password, and tagline that reads, “With compliments of...” in each attendee seat as well as signage in the registration area with Wi-Fi access instructions.

Hotel Room Drops

Multiple Opportunities [one supporter per day]: $7,500

Your company-designed product or corporate promotion will be delivered directly to attendee rooms to greet them each day. Supporter will be responsible for shipping materials to the hotel.
The State-of-the-Art Clinical Symposium exposes attendees to a range of content delivered by key opinion leaders in areas such as therapeutic developments, recent research findings, and scientific advances, all delivered in an environment conducive to dialogue and networking.

State-of-the-Art Clinical Symposium
March 27, 2020  ■  New Orleans, LA  ■  Hyatt Regency New Orleans

Given research showing the demand for rheumatology services increasing in the coming years, maintaining a robust workforce is critical to the survival and growth of rheumatology. With over 100 fellows in training attending the 2020 State-of-the-Art Clinical Symposium, this meeting is a chance to reach a large number of fellows in one setting. If you are interested in any of these opportunities, please contact ncabrera@rheumatology.org.

Fellows-in-Training Roundtables
Five Opportunities: $7,500
A unique opportunity to support and interact with fellows in training during the fellows-only pre-conference course, with roundtables designed to provide an avenue for fellows to explore various career opportunities while connecting with physicians and other experts who can provide varied perspectives.

Recognition and benefits include:
■ Corporate recognition in signage displayed at the event
■ Corporate recognition in the Fellows Program
■ Verbal recognition by speaker at the beginning of the session
■ Selection of one table on which to have a table tent corporate recognition card
■ Participation of one company representative (full-time physician employee) in a roundtable on the topic “Opportunities in Industry” alongside an ACR facilitator
■ Fellows will rotate to up to three roundtables, with an average of 7-10 fellows participating per roundtable

Hands-On Workshops
Five Opportunities: $5,000
Demonstrate your commitment to the rheumatology fellows in training by supporting one of five workshops where fellows will participate in hands-on activities designed to further their understanding and expertise in important rheumatologic areas.

The following five hands-on workshops will be hosted:
■ Fundamentals in Musculoskeletal Ultrasound
■ Musculoskeletal Examination for the Rheumatologist
■ Physical Examination of Rheumatic Disease: Myositis
■ Physical Examination of Rheumatic Disease: Scleroderma
■ Physical Examination of Rheumatic Disease: Dermatology

Note: Topics are subject to change
Afternoon Networking Reception

Time: 12:00–1:00 PM
Five Opportunities: $10,000

Fellows will have the opportunity to unwind and network with their colleagues prior to the pre-conference session with beverages and appetizers.

Anticipated attendance: 100 fellows in training

Recognition and benefits include:

■ Corporate recognition in signage displayed at the networking event
■ Corporate recognition in the Fellows Program
■ Ability for two company representatives [full-time physician employee] to attend the event and network with the fellows
This two-day workshop, with approximately 100 attendees, is designed to promote interactions between young and established investigators to foster collaboration and career mentoring.

Support

The ACR is pleased to offer the following support opportunities at the Rheumatology Research Workshop. If you are interested in any of these opportunities, please contact ncabrera@rheumatology.org.
